MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Frank Slatinshek, Assistant Chief
Counsel, House Armed Services Committee

Met with Frank Slatinshek who told me that Representative Nedzi (D., Mich.) will be continuing as rapidly as possible the meetings started this week with the various elements of the intelligence community but the schedule of the meetings has not yet been firmed up. Mr. Slatinshek noted preliminary impressions that the numbers of personnel and the cost of intelligence activities appear to need careful review. They appear to be far greater than is reasonably necessary to produce the "paucity of intelligence" that is being produced. These "preliminary impressions" appear to be related to elements of DOD with the Agency at least for the present having a clear bill of health.
